

TODAY I MADE A RAINBOW

Today I made a rainbow
I'm telling you no lie

It shined in 7 colors
but not up in the sky

Today I made a rainbow, without a cloud in sight infact the sun was shining, and all the world~~was~~ bright

The lilacs bloomed profusely, perfuming all the air,
there were birds a flutter, singing everywhere.

Today I made a rainbow, in such a splended way, I fashioned it from sunbeams, and water I could spray.

For as I washed my old back porch, a humble , homely chore

I made the lovely sign of NOAH'S arch over my backdoor

Today I made a rainbow while watering my rose bush

I didn't have a magic wand, but just a garden hose!
